What should I include as income?

You should include all sources income that you receive, and include the amount of income that you earn before any deductions are taken for insurance, taxes, retirement, Medicare, etc. Your total (gross) income is what will be considered for eligibility.

The following types of income are not included in income calculation:

- Earned income of minors (age 17 and under)
- One-time federal household stimulus payments
- Income of live-in health aids
- Non-cash benefits such as childcare or medical care assistance and food support
- One-time cash gifts, for example a birthday

I Have Another Eligibility Letter

I have a letter from a government program that shows I am income eligible. The letter is dated January 1, 2020 or later.

This is also known as “categorical eligibility” and a case manager or government partner may be able to help you with this option. The letter must include a determination of your income on or after January 1, 2020. Many programs have paused income certifications during the pandemic.

I Have Other Income Documents

If you do not have annual tax returns for 2020 or an eligible letter from another government program, or if your income has recently decreased, use this method.

- ⊙ Report all sources of income including cash
- ⊙ Upload documents including pay stubs, 1099s, W2s, and receipts in each category.
- ⊙ Do this for all adult household members with income who do not have tax returns for 2020

I Have No Income To Report

This certification is only for adults who have no income. Misrepresenting your income may be fraud.

The RentHelpMN program may need to contact you to verify that you have no income and may ask for additional documentation, which could cause delays processing your application.

Each household member 18 and older who claims no income must complete and sign an attestation of no income.

- I. Since March 13, 2020, a member of my household qualifies for unemployment benefits
- II. Since March 13, 2020, a member of my household has experienced a reduction in household income, incurred financial hardship due directly or indirectly to the pandemic. The hardship includes (check all that apply):
- Reduction in household income
 - Significant cost increases
 - Healthcare costs, including care at home for individuals with COVID-19
 - Purchase of personal protective equipment (i.e., gloves, face masks, face shields)
 - Penalties, fees, and legal costs associated with rental or utility payments owed
 - Payments for rent or utilities made by credit card
 - Moving costs to avoid homelessness or housing instability
 - Increased childcare costs
 - Internet access and computer costs required to work or attend school remotely
 - Alternative transportation costs
 - Forced leave from work due to school closure or childcare changes
 - Other

For applicants certifying to a hardship under section II, please provide additional information explaining your hardship:

Explain Your Hardship...

- III. A member of my household has experienced a risk of experiencing homelessness or housing instability. (The hardship does not need to exist as of the date of the application as long as it existed for any period of time since March 13, 2020. For example, if one member of your household faced a risk or eviction or lived in an overcrowded situation between March 13, 2020 and August 1, 2020, your household would be eligible for RentHelpMN assistance under this eligibility criteria.):

The hardship includes (check all that apply):

- Risk of eviction
- Risk of lease termination
- Living “doubled up”, or in a residence that isn’t permanent for you
- Struggling to pay rent and utilities, or rent and utilities are more than your household can afford
- Relying on credit cards or depleting savings to pay for rent or utilities
- Struggling to pay for essentials such as food, prescription drugs, childcare or transportation.

524	COVID-19 Emergency Rental Assistance	Pending Initial Review	Your application has been received and is pending initial review.	PRE-QUALIFICATION LETTER

Your Application Status as of April 18, 2021 : "Pending Initial Review "

Your application's status reflects its current step in processing. Please check your email for updates and possible requests for additional information.

- Pending Initial Review - Your application has been received and is pending initial review.

Proof of Prequalified Application

Thank you for submitting your application. It will be reviewed for eligibility and you will be contacted regarding next steps. If you need proof of your efforts to get housing assistance, you may use the letter below. You can print the letter by clicking here. If you provided an email address, you will also receive a copy of this letter at that address.

To whom it may concern,

On 04/18/2021, Minnesota Renter submitted an application for housing assistance through RentHelpMN.org. This website hosts a program made possible by federal emergency rental assistance funds and is administered by a partnership between Minnesota Housing, the counties of Anoka, Dakota, Hennepin, Ramsey and Washington as well as the cities of Saint Paul and Minneapolis that are responsible for receiving applications for federal rental assistance funds. Eligible funds include rent, utilities, and other housing related expenses as approved by the program.

Minnesota Renter has applied for $5,900.00 in housing assistance for the month(s) of Mar 2021, Apr 2021, May 2021, Jun 2021, Jul 2021. Minnesota Renter is waiting to hear if they are qualified for the program, and how much they may be able to receive.

If you have any questions about the program, you can find out more information at www.RentHelpMN.org.

Sincerely,

RentHelpMN.org Program Team
